You have a great Christian attitude on life in or out of school. When you drank I always tried to make you see my way but I never showed or told you I really cared and loved you or just sat down and talked to you or just now things or different and I see the mistake I made which will help me with my friends that do drink. I've learned many a lessons from you. I guess I've used up more than my share of space. I wish you the best in life and everything you do. I care and love you so much. Keep smiling and letting your light shine. God loves you and may He Bless you always. You are always remembered in my prayers. I Love You

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INDIVIDUALS BLEND AT

There are many individuals in Clifton High School. There is the "Kicker" with a round bulge in his back pocket, a cowboy hat, boots, a pick-up truck, and his C.B. There is the "Freak" who is made to cut his hair each fall and by the last week of school has let it grow so long that he receives numerous warnings to cut it again. Somehow he manages to get by with only a demerit. There is the fashion model whether male or female who always looks sharp, and there is the not-so-best dressed. There is the clown. He makes us laugh, but makes the teacher mad. There is the groucho (not Marx, but a real groucho), the silly, the spirited, and the almost dead. There is the "student" who truly enjoys learning, and the one who comes to school because he has to. Of course no One person fits into One category every day of the school year. That is what makes everyone at our school an individual.

IS THERE LIFE AFTER HIGH SCHOOL?

"Where we love is home, Home that our feet may leave, but not our hearts."
— Oliver Wendell Holmes

Deep in their Souls, most Americans have a feeling, an almost spiritual reverence, for their hometown. Back in our hometown we could watch the sun soar into the morning sky and sink into the night. There in that sanctuary where our families could huddle in times of grief and gather in times of joy. During our high school years, we swear that we will never return home; however, most C.H.S. ex's inform us that the memories created during our four years in high school are the best in life.

CUBS LOSE TO ACADEMY:

Homecoming 1977 wasn't quite as successful as we hoped it would be. The Cubs lost the football game to the Academy Bees. This, however, didn't put a damper on the spirit at the game. Everyone was in a state of suspense as it was announced that Susan Rush was 2nd runner-up, Sherry Conrad, 1st runner-up and Lisa Abercrombie — Homecoming Queen.

The class of '47 held a thirty year reunion and attended the football game. Afterwards, they joined students in attending a pizza supper and sock hop, sponsored by the Junior Class.

The Homecoming dance was held on Saturday night at the Clifton Civic Center. The theme of the dance was "Looks Like We Made It." The Junior class decorated the Civic Center to look like spring with daisies on the tables, and rainbows on the walls.

HOMECOMING SPIRIT ALIVE

SPIRITED CUBS DEFEAT WHITNEY WILDCATS, 13-6, IN MID-SEASON CLASH

Individualism is not an easy goal to achieve, but if it is approached properly, this goal may become realism. A football team seems to be a "we" situation instead of a "me" situation, but at one time, everyone on that team said, "I want to play football." So, he plays with others while he "does his own thing."

CUBS' HARD WORK AND

Once again the Cubs produced an above average season; however, this one was special. The Cubs were young and had little experience. But with hard work and persistence, the Cubs began to build. By the time, mid-season came, it was evident the Cubs were a good basketball team. But what was really noticed and appreciated was the unselfish team play. This type of team play made it possible for all to contribute to their fullest, and make the season the success it was.

Eight veteran and five rookies rounded out a total of thirteen golfers for Mrs. Horak to coach this year at C.H.S. The large number gave Mrs. Horak much leverage in filling out the teams of five with three extras in case anyone was not "up to par" for a tournament. Ten lady golfers got off to a swinging start this year on March 6 at the Belton Tourney in spitė of the heavy rains. One week later, they journeyed to Granbury where the tough course played havoc with the scores so that the second team defeated the first team as they also did at Belton. The second and third place trophies went to the first and second teams respectively at the Bosque Valley Invitational that was held on March 28.

On April 3, the district tournament was held also at Bosque Valley Golf Club. The first team consisting of

At the regional tournament at Lake Proctor on April 19 and 20, the first team came in a strong fourth place with a 75 stroke improvement from regional play a year ago. The second team came in sixth with a score of 936, a 358 improvement over last year.

The tennis team, under the direction of Coach Janice Maxwell finished the year in style. Team members participated in two practice meets. The team ventured to Whitney for the first of these meets and played Meridian on home grounds.

At the beginning of the season, team members drew for numbers. These numbers were helpful in setting up a ladder to be used for challenges. To move up, a team member must challenge or be challenged by another member. The winner of the six games — two out of three sets, then proceeded to move up on the ladder. The top players were selected to play on the varsity and the remaining played on the junior varsity.

The Sul Ross Tennis Center in Waco was the site of the district meet. Denise Ballard and Elton Watley won second place, giving them a chance to play for regional at Tarleton.

The returning members look ahead to next year for another exciting year of experience and challenge.

CHS STUDENTS MAKE

What really goes on up at Clifton High? Some people actually work and study! The Juniors had several local people speak about their careers. The Seniors were assigned a research paper on anything they wanted to do from witchcraft and consumer buying to fashion design and Greta Garbo. Mrs. Pearson's business classes toured the Farm Bureau in Waco and the ag classes attended the stock shows. The speech class put together a news show and put on the U.I.L. one act play. These are only a few of the activities that go on and add to the life of Clifton High.

JUNIORS HONOR SENIORS WITH

On April 15, at the Knight's Inn in Waco, between 8:30-12:00 p.m., was the setting of the Junior-Senior Prom. The decorations carried out the theme "Just the Way You Are" with a bird bath tiered of three levels, white and blue water coming out of a fish's mouth. The live band was "Shadow Wood" from Bryan. Most people were either dancing or talking. With the announcement of Mr. and Ms. C.H.S., Lisa Abercrombie and Craig Hoffman, the seniors realized that this would be their last Prom. The will and prophecy was then read by Randy Riggs, Arnold Navarrete, and Craig Hoffman.

Juniors, Lesa Hill, Teresa Parks, Bryan Hollingsworth, Emily Key, Linda Harvey, Brenda Harvey, Don Burden, Alice Sedberry, Derek Rose, Kenny Outlaw, Robert Shea, Leianne Kreid, Arnold Navarrette, and Terri Schrantz who decorated for the Prom, were relieved when everything fell in place. The Junior Steering Committee was beginning to believe the Prom was never to be. The Prom was a success despite everything, with the Junior Class honoring the Senior Class of 1978.

SENIORS RECEIVE NEW

On the evening of May 17, 1978 at 10 p.m., the Seniors of 1978 left on their trip to New Orleans. After stopping only once during the night, the buses rolled to a stop in Layfette, La. for breakfast. Traveling on, they made New Orleans about 3:30 that morning. The seniors stayed in New Orleans for three days. They frequented such places as Bourbon Street, Chris Owen's, Pat O'Brien's, and throughout the French Quarter. Other excursions included a ride on the trolley cars and a trip to the Superdome. Some of the girls found heaven in the Canal Street stores. On the final night, the seniors took a ride on the Admiral River Boat. Disco music was played by a live band and the seniors had a fun time dancing. On Sunday morning at 8 a.m. the seniors left New Orleans very tired but all had a good time.

FUTURE TEACHERS

a. b. c.

Under the supervision of their teacher, the Future Teachers of America found teaching to be a fun and rewarding task. FTA members learned responsibility with the help of Mrs. Massey. This was Mrs. Massey's first year as FTA advisor.

A specially planned breakfast meeting in early October was the occasion where the 77-78 officers were installed. FTA members arrived sleepy-eyed at 7:00 in the morning at the Will Krueger, Jr. residence to enjoy a continental breakfast. The FTA officers learned their duties through installation.

Money-making projects included bake sales and the selling of fruitcakes. Money earned went toward the yearly FTA banquet. The banquet provided a lovely meal, a chance for the teachers to recognize their FTA helper, pins for the FTA members, and a chance for teachers and students to socialize.

ANNUAL STAFF

Work on the 1978 Annual began early this year. Four members of Journalism J. Kruegar, S. Cox, N. Carpenter, and C. K. Stringer attended a three day workshop at Texas Tech University during the last week of July.

In October all members of Journalism attended another workshop at Tarleton University.

On Friday before the Christmas holidays, the entire Journalism class sang Christmas Carols to the kids at the Elementary school. C. Hoffman dressed as Santa Claus, D. Harmon as Mrs. Claus, and S. Cox as an elf. The yearly annual staff Christmas party was held at Mrs. Warlick's home, where the photographers were very surprised by the gag gifts they received.

Later in the Spring the Journalism class visited Taylor Publishing Co.

"HAPPY BOOKERS" HOLD SLUMBER PARTY

The Bookaneers Club held their officers' induction at Mrs. Wood's home this year. Mrs. Spence conducted the induction. Afterwards, the club had its annual Christmas party. Many members spent the night. It was a special year for the sponsor, Mrs. Wood, who missed a week of school at the end of February because her son and daughter-in-law had a baby girl, Amber. Mrs. Wood visited them in Virginia. The club's money-making project this year was selling Current Stationery Products.

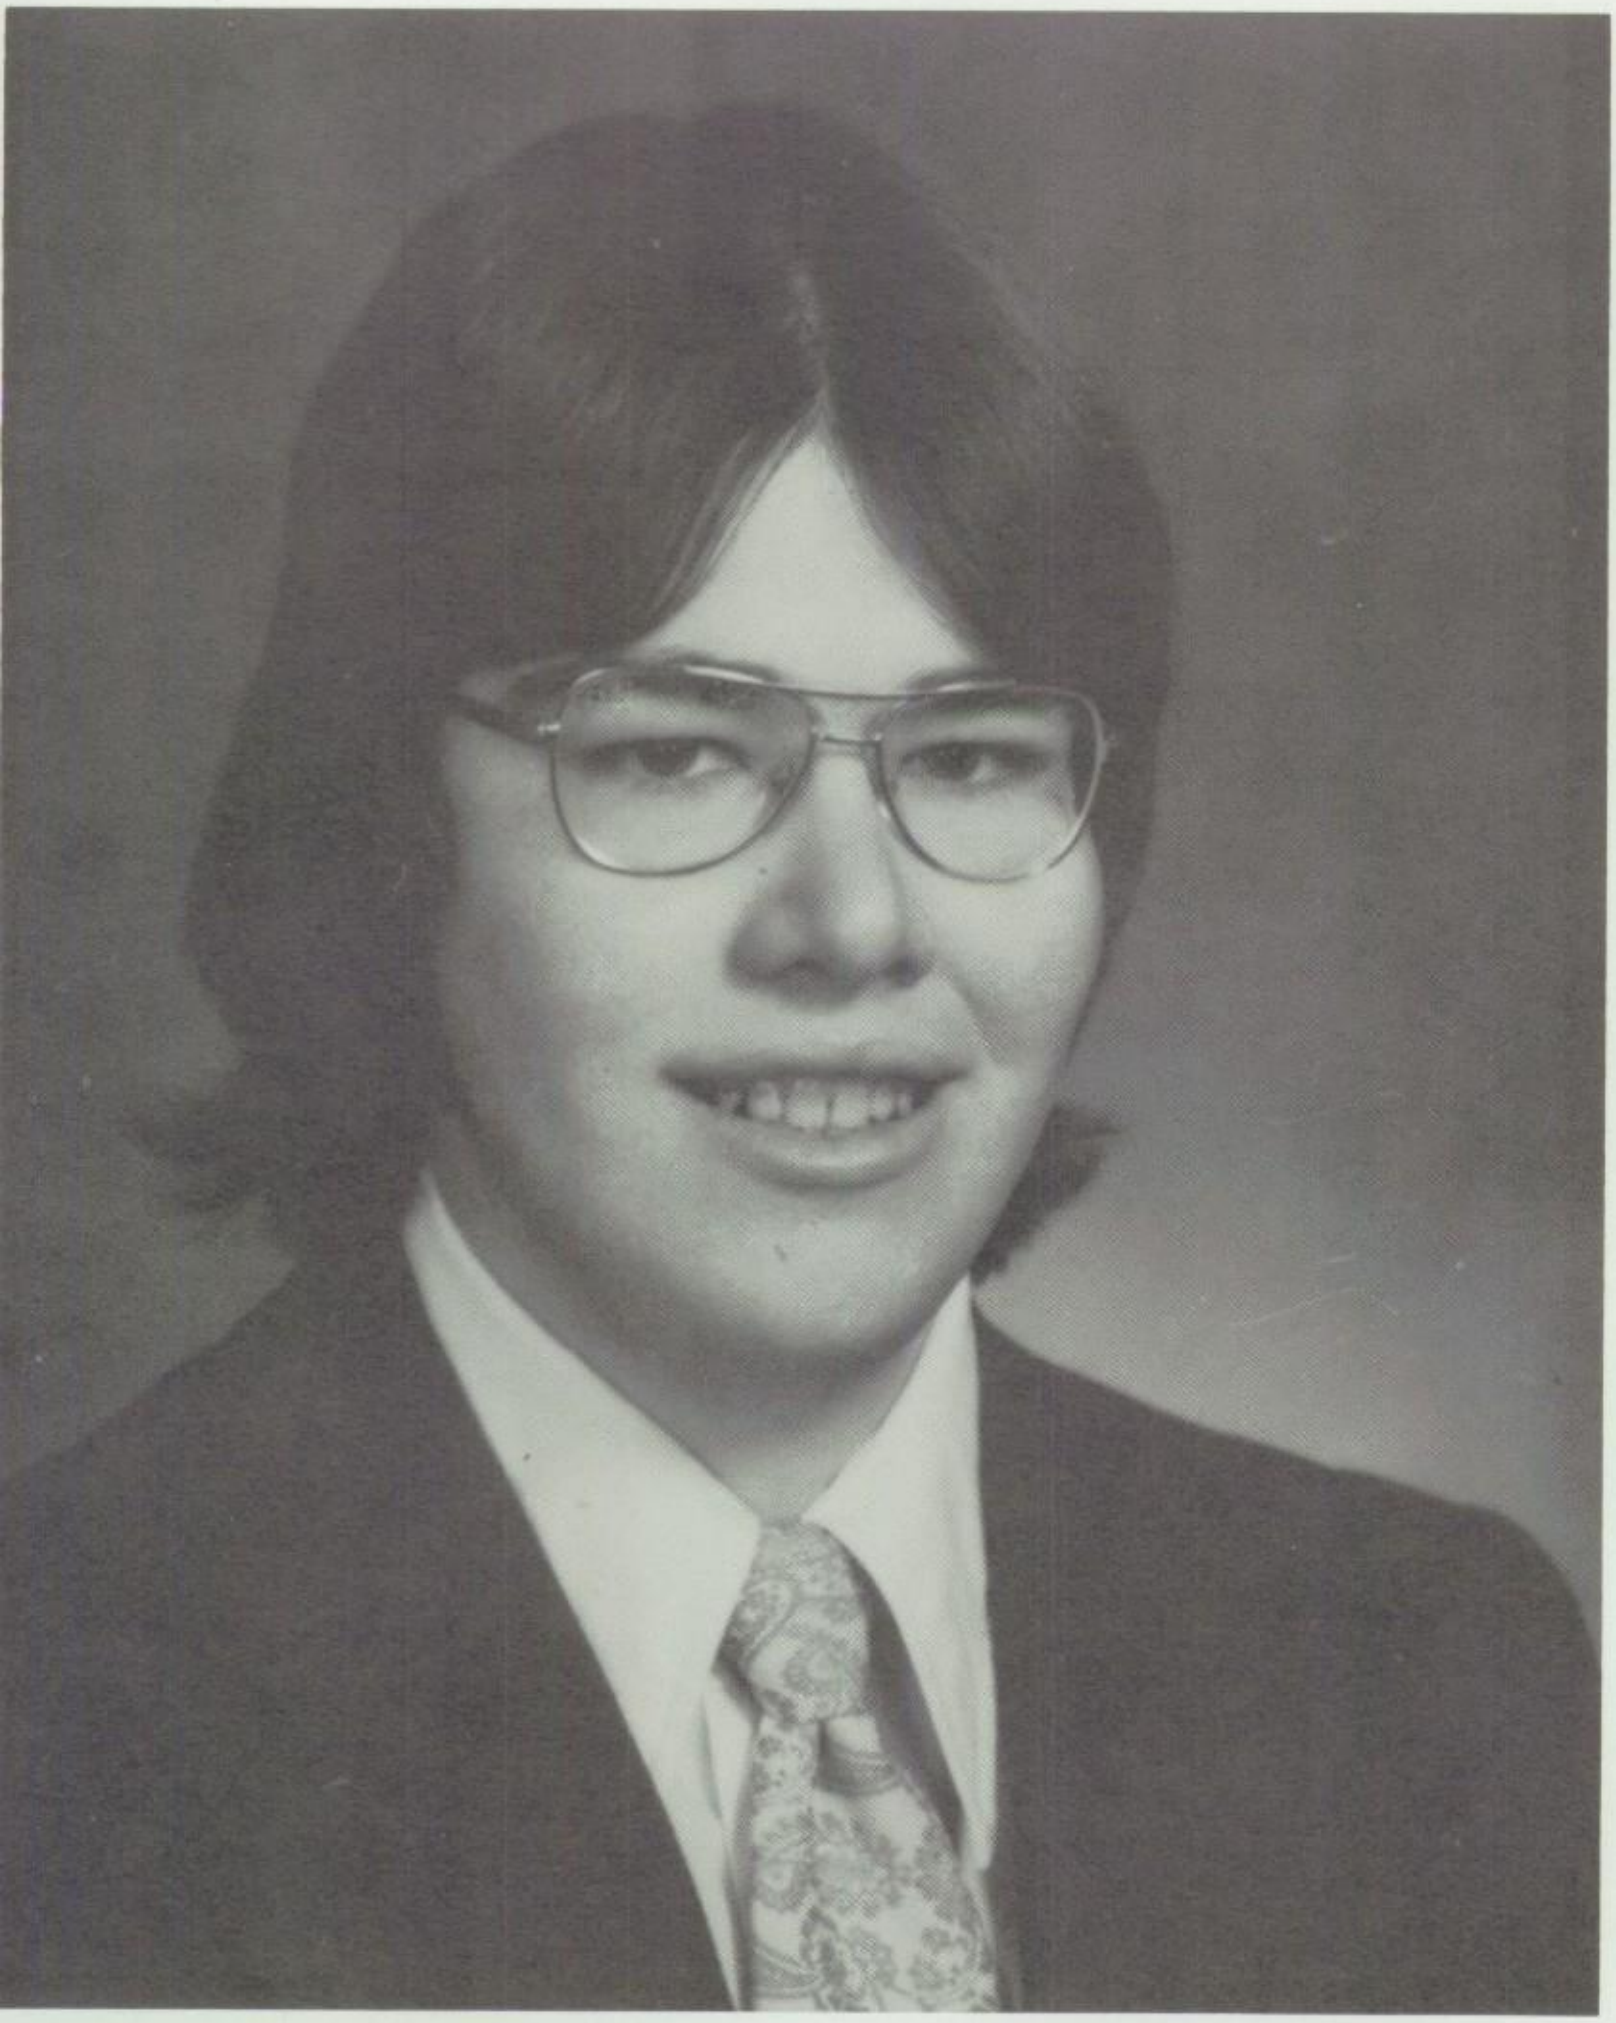
The seniors' main goal this year was to earn enough money to go to New Orleans. In reaching this projected goal they held bake sales, a chili supper, paper and can drives, and other varied events. They were able to easily reach their $5000 goal before the trip.

With the coming of spring also came many parties given for the seniors by parents of seniors. These included a ride on the Brazos Queen after the prom, western dance at the V.F.W., weiner roast at the David Conrads' farm, and a banquet at the Santa Teresa Steak House.



Charles Arlis Greenway moved to Clifton in 1972 when he was a seventh grader. He participated with the Seniors of '78 in various events. His favorite extracurricular activity was the band. In this, he played the drums. Chuck entered U.I.L. editorial in the spring of '78 and qualified for regional which elated him and all the journalism class. Chuck was also a great Arkansas Razorback fan. He supported them throughout the year in all the different sports. All the students at C.H.S. were saddened by Chuck's death on May 24, 1978 just two days before graduation.
